

B10 TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 2003

MORNING MEMO

Hot tips and news to start your business day

Send your tips and questions to Bill Ferguson, The Cincinnati Enquirer, 312 Elm St., Cincinnati 45202; fax 564-6991; e-mail bferguson@enquirer.com

TODAY'S CAREER TALK

Do not despair if your current work situation is not particularly fulfilling or challenging because it is likely you are learning new and important lessons, says Amy Joyce, author of I Went to College for This? How to Turn Your Job into a Career You Love. "Sometimes, the hardest decision anytime in our career, but especially when we are young, is to figure out when it's time to hit the road," she says. One big indicator is attitude: "It may be time to get going when collecting a paycheck just doesn't do it for you anymore."

— John Eckberg

TODAY'S MONEY TIP

Before you can deduct unreimbursed business expenses from your income for tax purposes, they must exceed 2 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI). Don't forget that trade journal subscriptions and union or professional organization dues count toward such business expenses.

— Amy Higgins

TODAY'S NUMBER

30,000

Customers of Sirius Satellite Radio Inc., which offers more than 100 radio channels that can be heard across the United States, at the end of last year.

— BLOOMBERG NEWS

TODAY'S MOVER

Verline Dotson has been named chairwoman of the Ohio Head Start Association Inc. Ms. Dotson is Head Start director at the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency, a national trainer, speaker and grant reader for the federal government. She graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a bachelor's degree and received her master's degree in social work from Clark Atlanta University.

Dotson

— Shirley Dees