

Community Action Agency to honor 5, agency

Five people and a nonprofit agency will be recognized for contributions to the community Nov. 2 at the annual luncheon of the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency at the Westin Hotel downtown.

Judith Van Ginkel, president of Every Child Succeeds.

■ Anthony Abdullah, who volunteers to provide free medical examinations to Head Start infants and children.

■ Rochelle Morton, director of the Cincinnati/After-School Network for the YMCA of Greater Cincinnati.

■ Annie Ruth, founder and president of Eye of the Artists Foundation.

■ Charles Woode, section chief of the Health Services and Overpayment Recovery Unit at Hamilton County Jobs and

Woode

Morton

Ruth

Family Services.

■ Super Jobs Center, a nonprofit agency that helps people gain the confidence and skills they need to secure employment.

Juan Williams, a senior correspondent for National Public Radio, will be the guest speaker.

Seats are available for $55. The event will run from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

For more information, contact Beth Cook, 513-569-1840, ext. 1058, or e-mail annuahmg07@cincy/caa.org.

Sweet gifts

What began as a yummy sweet shop, creating and selling gift baskets to members of Greater Bethlehem Temple Apostolic Church in Northside, has blossomed into charitable work.

The agency, now known as Sweet Faith for Kids, donates 50 baskets every month to St. Joseph's Orphanage and the main office of Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, and the branch in Northside.

"We are honored to share our love and the love of Christ, by donating Yummy gift baskets to children that are ill, underprivileged and often underrepresented," said Nicole Chapman, founder and CEO of the organization.

Chapman said the group was started two months ago, but because of its rapid growth, the members decided to make charitable contributions.

She said a basket might include candy, chips, socks, toys, books, candles, soaps and body washes.

A lot of the items are donated. For more information, call Chapman: 513-288-6350.

Teacher joins honor society

Sherry Fuller, an art teacher at C.O. Harrison Elementary School in Delhi Township, will be inducted into the Ohio Art Education Association Circa Honor Society at the organization's conference Nov. 1-3 in Dayton, Ohio.

Fuller, of Delhi, will also receive the 25-year Circa Recognition Award, which honors long-term service and professional dedication to OAEA and the visual art education field in Ohio.

If you have a story about a student, resident or volunteer group that's making a difference, contact Allen Howard at 513-768-8362, ahoward@enquirer.com or 513-768-8340 (fax). Or go online to Cincinnati.com and click on GetPublished!

THE ENQUIRER