

AREA NEWS

---

THE LATEST FROM WHERE WE LIVE

---

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2007 B3

---

WALNUT HILLS

Tax help for low-income

The Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency will prepare 2006 tax returns for people who qualify for the earned income credit at its office at 1740 Langdon Farm Road, Walnut Hills. Tax forms will be prepared on a first-come, first-served basis from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays; and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays. Appointments will be taken for 4-8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday and on Saturday. The service is offered through April 14. Participants must bring photo identification; W-2, 1098 and 1099 forms; proof of any other income; 2005 federal and state returns; Social Security numbers or tax identification numbers for everyone to be listed on the return; child-care provider identification number; and bank information. Call 513-569-1840, ext. 1031, for more information or to make an appointment.