

Saturday, May 19, 2007

WKRC 6:00 Evening News

2007 Spring Youth Summit

Community agencies used music to try to stop teen violence today. The first annual Spring Youth Summit looked at ways to stop teens from turning to violence and drugs while improving their self image. Speakers also discussed ways to avoid being a victim of violence and to reach out the charities in the community.