--- P.E.A.C.E. Y.A.R.D. PROJECT

April 6th watch the unveiling of some of Cincinnati's area leaders. The P.E.A.C.E.- Y.A.R.D. Project requests your presence at the Cincinnati Artist Warehouse. Doors open at 6pm for the Cincinnati Community- Legends Concert & Awards Show. Due to the many self less acts of On Air Personality and Voice of our Community the Wiz's own Jade West and the Voice of Nati Big Greg both will be among the featured honorees with special performances by Vondale Batchelor, Phantasee and more. Dress to impress, no gym shoes. Tickets $10 in advance and $15 at the door. Call 513-891-PHAN(7426).

--- Womenly Highly Favored

Ladies and Gentlemen Saturday, April 7 W.H.F. welcome you to their next Women Highly Favored conference at the Best Western Hotel. Doors open at 6pm and the program will begin promptly at 6:15pm. Guest speakers will touch on a subject matter that still remains a mystery in many ways..... Relationships between Man & Woman. Call 513-825-9600.

--- Minority Health Month

April is considered Minority Health Month. Investigative studies have proven African Americans are at a higher risk when it comes to having heart disease, stroke, cancer, diabetes and HIV/AIDS. Some ailments can be alleviated through education. Focus on your health. It calls for making good choices and taking care of ourselves on a daily basis—like choosing to exercise regularly, eating healthy, not smoking, having our children immunized, wearing proper protective equipment when exercising. Our behavior is key to staying healthy. Visit <http://www.netwellness.uc.edu/healthtopics>.

--- OTART Career & College Fair

By working to earn money yourself, you can learn a lot about the values of team work as well as the world of business. April 7 assist your child in locating a job with the help of O.T.A.R.T. during their 4th Annual Career and College Fair to be held at the Schottelkotte Park from noon until 3pm. Special invited guests include Council Woman Laketa Cole, and Gwen McFarlin. For more details call 513-522-LINK.

--- Feast of love

Celebrate Jesus new life together at A Fest of Love's 21st annual Easter Day Dinner. April 8th visit the College Hill Presbyterian Church from 1:30pm until 4:30pm. Activities will be available for children, meal delivery available. Donations of food, money, or volunteers appreciated or just come for dinner. For more information call 513-541-5676 ext.167.

--- GED & Computer Classes

If a lack of computer skills or not having a degree is preventing you from earning a decent wage, then the Cincinnati- Hamilton County Action Agency can help YOU. CAA is offering free Microsoft Word training classes and free GED classes to qualifying individuals. CAA can also help if you want to simply improve in a specific academic area. New classes begin April 17. Space is limited so call 513-569-1840.
