To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to.

Cincinnati, OH | 45237 US
1740 Langdon Farm Rd View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage

unmet needs and fill service gaps.

Fund, our unrestricted fund, that allows Community Action Agency to direct resources toward

Help us end the cycle of poverty in YOUR community. Donate today to the Community Relief

Donate to the Community Relief Fun

Nominations should be submitted by Friday, July 3.

for more information and to fill out the nomination form.

Nominate an Individual or Organization for CAA Award

July 8, Colerain Public Works, 4160 Springdale Road.

Colerain Township:

July 7, former Remke property, 5025 Delhi Pike.

Delhi Township:

July 6, Lifespring Church, 1373 Galbraith Road.

North College Hill:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday at Mount Airy School, 5730 Colerain Ave. From 9 a.m.-1 p.m.

Mount Airy:

Thursday, Walmart, 1143 Smiley Road.

Wednesday, Forest Chapel United Methodist Church, 680 West Sharon Road.

Tuesday, Word of Deliverance Ministries for the World, 693 Fresno Road.

Forest Park:

Testing will be available from 1-7 p.m. on the following days at these locations:

setting up walk-up and drive-through testing sites in areas of concern throughout the County.

Hamilton County Public Health (HCPH) in partnership with the Cincinnati Health Department is

Where to Find Free COVID-19 Testing

They also gave out dental care packages and with singing Elmo's to encourage proper dental and household items to the children they serve. They've recently rolled out their Diapers on the

CAA's Head Start Childcare Partner,

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide of our clients.

a fan. Staff at CAA are taking appointments daily to make sure we continue to meet the needs towards customers' electric bill. Those who qualify are also eligible for a new air conditioner or

September 1st.  The Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is offering up to $500 in aid relief to Hamilton County residents, needing assistance with their electric service through

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but

hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but

hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please

remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but

hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please

remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but

hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Waverly's Hope Child Care

and partnerships of Head Start. You can join this live discussion

This week Ebony will be joined by CAA Head Start Leaders to discuss the principles, plans,

HS Facebook Live

and

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide

Welcome Project

families in the Cincinnati - Hamilton county area. In partnership with

In June, your Community Action Agency provided 47,000 pounds of healthy produce to

Community Action in Action

CEO/ President

Mark B. Lawson

Warm regards,

Please stay healthy and safe!

Over the last few days, there has been a spike in the number of COVID-19 cases.  Please

remember to be safe as we still have a long way to go before this pandemic is over. This is a difficult time for us all. Again, I want to encourage everyone to continue to stay safe and keep

Of course, we are very fortunate that none of us have personally tested positive for COVID-19, but

hospitals, and nursing homes in our area.  Two of these people were not only at high risk, but they

During the past six weeks, we have distributed 200,000 pounds of fresh produce.

We have entered into our Summer Crisis at CAA, which means that we have begun to provide